

Season 2 Episode 3

Housing Crisis

Jason and Mason walk down the street and they have trouble getting through the streets because it is jam-packed with people. Jason and Mason make themselves thin and they slide through narrow spaces between the people. Jason and Mason slide out of the crowd. Jason said, "Why are there so many people in the streets?" Mason said, "I don't know why." Someone's purse gets stolen by a thief and Mason spots it. Mason runs for the thief and he looks at his control watch and he presses a few buttons on it and it fires out an ice beam and the thief gets frozen to the ground. Mason takes the purse off the thief and Mason said, "Don't you ever think you can steal a nice old lady's purse with me around." Mason goes to give the purse back to the old lady and then someone swipes the purse out of Mason's hand. Mason uses his high-jump shoes and he jumps in the air and he fires a plasma ball at the ground next to the other thief and he gets thrown into a building surrounded by people. Mason jumps for the thief and he gets the purse and he jumps back to the old woman. The old woman said, "Thanks, young boy. What do I owe you?" Mason turns around and he said, "Nothing I guess." Mason goes back to Jason and Mason said, "I think I know what's going on here. I think this might be some crime lord's evil plan. Maybe we can use my anti-crime computer to figure something out."

Jason and Mason go to Mason's lab and the streets are filled with people and they even spill into Jason and Mason's yard. Mason looks at coordinates being printed out by his anti-crime computer. Mason looks at them. Mason said, "This must be some plan. The coordinates of reported crimes are scattered all over the grid. There does not seem to be any continuity or consistency with this." Jason gets a tub of orange sherbet ice cream and he gets a spoon and he sits at the couch in Mason's lab and he watches TV. George Ferrier is on the screen.

George Ferrier said, "George Ferrier of DDD News here on the scene of a current national emergency. It seems the streets of San Francisco are over populated. The shops and buildings are literally spilling out people. If this keeps up, we will have no room to breathe." George Ferrier's face begins to turn blue. George Ferrier said, "We need a hero now more than ever." George Ferrier falls to the ground and he drops his microphone. Captain Fusion picks it up. Captain Fusion said, "Hello, you all know me as Captain Fusion, the town's superhero. I have a plan to end this emergency so we can all live in peace. It involves using my shrink ray technology." Captain Fusion holds up a box to the camera. Captain Fusion said, "To solve this crowding problem, everyone has been invited for a small fee to live in Fusion Land. A city owned and run by me. Apply online today and the bus to this place will be at your house." Mason looks at the TV and then he looks to Jason and he said, "I wonder how this will turn out." Mason's fax machine makes noise and a fax comes out of it. Mason grabs the fax. Mason said, "It's from Captain Fusion. He wants us to work for him in his new city. I guess I don't have to ask you..." Jason gets up and he speeds around the lab and he has a briefcase filled with everything he needs. Mason said, "That's what I thought. I guess I will come along. They need me more than they think."

Jason and Mason wait outside their house the next morning and a black and red bus with Captain Fusion's logo on it drives and stops in front of Jason and Mason's house. They enter the bus and it looks just like any ordinary coach bus. Jason and Mason get to their seats and the bus speeds down the city streets and it bends and curves and flips over things so it completely avoids any traffic in the streets. The driver said, "Next stop, Fusion Land." The bus speeds into the park and it drives and shrinks into a small box. They end up in a docking hanger. They get off the bus. Jason said, "That was the best ride ever. They should make a theme park with a ride like that." Captain Fusion's voice said, "It has." Jason and Mason meet up with Captain Fusion at the hanger. Captain Fusion said, "Let me show you around."

Captain Fusion gives Jason and Mason a tour of Fusion Land. They see roller coasters and drink and food venders and apartment buildings. Captain Fusion said, "This is just like living at Dimensional Studios or Vidsney Land or something." Jason said, "I don't think I ever want to leave this place." Captain Fusion said, "That's what I thought. It is now time the two of you get to work. I want the two of you to patrol the city and watch out for any shady activity. I know this overcrowding is a plot from one of my villains and he must be stopped. That is the ultimate reason why I opened this place. Don't get too attached to it." Jason and Mason salute Captain Fusion and they both say, "Yes, master Fusion."

Jason and Mason walk down the streets and they see regular average people. They see clowns and entertainment people walking down the street. They walk past the arcade that has a large selection of classic games. Jason sees it and he bolts away from Mason. Mason said, "Jason, we have a job to do. You can't just go here and play games all day." Jason is too attached to the game and he completely ignores Mason. Mason waves his arm in front of Jason's face and Jason does nothing. Mason shrugs and he said, "Well, it looks like I'm just going to have to do this myself and Jason is not going to get paid."

Mason walks down the street some more and he walks through the town square where giant TVs are set up. Mason stops to watch the TVs. On the TV it shows a commercial for Fusion Land where Captain Fusion is dressed in a tuxedo and he dances to 90's dance music and people are partying with him. Captain Fusion said, "Come to Fusion Land where you can live in pure entertainment." The next thing that comes on is DDD News. George Ferrier is on the screen and he said, "Hello, I am George Ferrier of DDD News. This is the public affair statement. There is a housing crisis going on right now as you all know where we don't have enough houses for all the people. We need more places for people to live. We know Captain Fusion tried to do something but we have someone here with a very different approach. I am here with our local genius, Keith. Tell me, Keith, how would you solve this problem?" Keith said, "I personally think Captain Fusion is a fraud and his Fusion Land place is all some kind of scam." George said, "How do you plan on backing up what you just said?" Keith said, "I have written documents here from people Captain Fusion has saved over the years. There are some people here that said they have sustained injuries or money loses after being saved from Captain Fusion." Mason said, "This is bogus." Mason continues to walk down the street and he sees a giant lizard monster walk down the city streets.

The lizard monster destroys the arcade and he picks up Jason. Jason said, "Wow! This is really cool. This place truly rules. The lizard places Jason by his shirt on the top of a flag pole. Jason wiggles around like crazy and he said, "This place is awesome. I can see my house from up here. Now how do I get down from here?" The lizard suddenly multiplies into two lizards and it starts to destroy the buildings. It knocks down the roller coaster track.

Mason sees there are people on the roller coaster and it flies off the tracks and it spirals through the air and it smashes into the bank. Mason looks at the destruction and he said, "What to do?" Mason sees that both lizard monsters have spotted him and they chase after him. Mason runs away from them. Mason runs into a costume shop and he dresses like a ballerina and he dances out of the costume shop the lizards walk past him. Mason breathes a sigh of relief. Mason said, "They didn't spot me." Both lizards turn around and they head for Mason and they pick him up. One of them brings Mason up to his head and the lizard said, "Hah, Mason in a pink tutu." The lizard's head opens up and Keith is inside it and he takes a picture of Mason in the pink tutu. Keith said, "Wait till the people in the science community see this." Mason said, "What do you want, Keith?" Keith said, "I know Captain Fusion is behind all this and you are just a pawn on his chess board. Give up now and we won't go any further." Mason said, "How could you go any further?" Keith said, "Your cross-dressing is one thing for the books and the fact that you are enclosed in a box on a tree in the park that could fall down and kill all of you." Mason's eyes go big. Keith said, "Are you wearing women's underwear under that as well. It will be pretty messy by the time you are finished with me."

Captain Fusion looks up at the lizard and he said, "Leave him alone!" Captain Fusion fires his growth ray at himself and he grows to the same size as the lizard. Captain Fusion said, "pick on someone your own size." Captain Fusion punches the lizard that Keith is in in the face and he drops Mason. Captain Fusion picks up Mason and he brings him to the ground and he kicks the lizard in the gut. Captain Fusion punches the lizard from above and he grabs Keith out of the lizard. Captain Fusion yells at Keith, "Who is behind this?" Keith said, "Do you really think I will just tell you?" Captain Fusion said, "I have the power to crush you here right now." Keith said, "I would like to see you try." Captain Fusion crushes Keith and his body breaks and it leaks out a dark green goo. Captain Fusion said, "I knew it." Captain Fusion shrinks back to regular size and he shows Mason the green goo. Captain Fusion said, "This could only be the work of, The Multiplier." Mason said, "One of your villains?" Captain Fusion said, "He is a powerful man that is armed with a cannon that reproduces any matter possible. He cloned Keith and he cloned the lizard. I have a funny hunch." Captain Fusion sees an average civilian walk by. Captain Fusion punches the civilian in the gut and the gut breaks and green goo comes out. Captain Fusion said, "This is exactly what I thought. The Multiplier must have made clones of a bunch of people to over populate the city so I can open up my own city where the Multiplier can finally defeat me once and for all. If he wants a fight, he is going to get one."

Jason is brought back down from the flag pole and Jason and Mason are in Captain Fusion's office. Captain Fusion said, "We need a plan to find this multiplier and bring him to justice once and for all. What do we know?" Jason said, "I know there is a robot coming up from behind you." Captain Fusion turns around and a robot smashes his hand through the window. It tries to grab Jason and Mason but they run out of the room. They run into the hallway and the arm chases them down the hallway destroying everything in its path. Jason and Mason run onto the street and the arm still chases them and the Fusion Land city hall is completely destroyed. Jason and Mason continue to run and they cut corners down the street and the arm continues to chase after Jason and Mason destroying more and more stuff on the street. Jason and Mason see the giant security doors of the bank. Jason and Mason run into the bank and they slam the doors shut and they lock the doors and they grab a bunch of stuff and they barricade the door.

Jason said, "I think we are safe in here." Mason said, "I wouldn't be too sure of that." They see the door budging back and forth as the arm tries to break through the doors. Jason and Mason run and hide behind the bank teller's desk. They shake in fear. They see the door to the bank manager's office opens and Keith steps out. Keith looks at Jason and Mason and he said, "What are you two fearful fools doing here?" Jason points to the doors. Keith said, "You can't stay here. You need to meet your fate." Mason said, "Wait a minute." Mason gets up and he sees the America and California flags in the corner. Mason picks up the American flag and he hits Keith in the gut multiple times and he hits Keith in the gut and picks Keith up with the flagpole and he smashes him into the ceiling and he throws Keith across the room. Keith looks at his hand and blood drips off it. Jason and Mason look at that and their eyes go big. Mason said, "You must be the real Keith then." Keith said, "Of course I'm the real Keith you fucking morons." Mason said, "I am terribly sorry for the trouble and pain. We were just trying to..." Keith said, "I know what you are trying to do. It is not going to work. The Multiplier knows your fate." Jason said, "It looks like he needs his fate checked." Keith said, "Is that really the best comeback you can come up with?" Jason said, "It is now."

The arm breaks through the door and the barricade and it goes up to Jason and Mason and it stops. Captain Fusion grabs the back part of the hand and he ties up the hand into the arm. The arm retreats. Jason said, "Way to go, Fusion!" Captain Fusion said, "It is not over yet. There could be more." A voice said, "You're right Captain Fusion, there is more." The Multiplier walks in. Jason said, "You are the, the..." The Multiplier said, "Multiplier, yes I know I am." Jason said, "Captain Fusion, defeat the Multiplier." The Multiplier said, "It won't be that easy." Captain Fusion grabs a desk and he is about to smash it on the Multiplier's head and the Multiplier uses his technology and he creates five more desks and he has them smashed on Captain Fusion. The Multiplier said, "You see. It is hard to defeat me. C'mon, Keith. It is time to grab our prize." Mason stops the Multiplier and Keith and Mason is armed with the American flag. Mason said, "You are not going to get the money that easy." The Multiplier said, "Get him, Keith." Keith kicks the flag out of Mason's hand and Mason runs to the other side of the desk.

Keith aims the flag at Mason and he throws the flag. He said, "Oh say can you see!" The flag gets stuck in the wall and Mason sits on top of it. Keith grabs the California flag and he said, "By the dawn's early light!" Keith throws the California flag at Mason and it gets stuck in the wall on a higher level. Mason climbs up the flags and he opens a tile on the ceiling and he crawls in the ceiling. Keith rejoins the Multiplier in the gold room. The Multiplier puts down his multiplying cannon and he and Keith grab the gold. Mason looks down at this from inside the ceiling vent. Mason takes out a fishing rod with a magnet on the end and it attracts the cannon without the Multiplier noticing. Mason takes the cannon and he brings it into the vent. Mason looks at the gold and he fires the ray at the gold. The gold multiplies until it floods the bank and spills out the bank windows. The roof of the bank breaks and it explodes and gold begins raining in the streets. The Multiplier and Keith smash into a building and gold bricks fly around them making a cage and they get stuck in the cage.

The cops show up and they arrest the Multiplier. Captain Fusion looks at Jason and Mason and he said, "Well, you did it. The two of you helped me catch the Multiplier." Jason said, "Yeah but what are they going to do about all the clones in the streets?" Captain Fusion said, "I think I will find a use for them."

Jason and Mason and Captain Fusion are in a giant-sized bathtub on the roof of a building and they are being served by clones and clones are cleaning up the debris in the streets. An old lady walks up to the bath and she said, "I think I lost my purse to some thugs again." Jason said, "Shut up and go back to work!" The old lady said, "But I am not a clone." Jason said, "I don't care now get back to work."
